

www.ranking-the-arts.com

With www.ranking-the-arts.com NP3 responds to the confronting, but light-hearted personality check in which or on which the artist presents himself as an icon. The battle of becoming the most 'googled personality' starts NOW! Google's will is the law. NP3 clicks herself into the mighty Google flow that left its mark on our society: Google statistics, hits, web pages or unique visitors show today how "important" you are. The more you get 'googled' the higher you get in the Google rankings and the more you work with Google through your website, blog, YouTube, Twitter or Facebook the more importance you get in the global system of Google. With the project www.ranking-the-arts.com, NP3 hands over the curatorship once only to the big boss Google.

How it works:

As a professional artist you can, at a cost of 25 Euros register yourself for www.ranking-the-arts.com. By participating, your artist's name will be entered into the database www.ranking-the-arts.com which is directly linked to the Google Search Engine. As soon as NP3 enters your name into www.ranking-the-arts.com, Google actively searches for the number of pages in which all registered artists are named. The higher your ranking in Google the higher your ranking in www.ranking-the-arts.com. Through the link with Google the ranking list remains continuously in motion throughout the year and everything will be possible. The project has a duration of 1 year and it will be extremely exciting until the last, final moment, even until the last second, which artist will be the ultimate number 1 of www.ranking-the-arts.com. The year begins when the first artist is placed on the ranking list of www.ranking-the-arts.com. Attention! Registration is now possible! After exactly one year www.ranking-the-arts.com will close under notarial supervision and the artist that holds the number 1 position on that particular moment on the ranking list will be the great winner of www.ranking-the-arts.com

Why in Google's name should you participate?

The winner receives a solo exhibition at NP3 and the entire proceeds of www.ranking-the-arts.com will be allocated towards this. That means with 100 members there will be a budget of 2,500.00 Euros and with 500 participants even a budget of 12,500 Euros. And how can you participate? Please email to ranking@np3.nu with the subject participation RANKING, then you will receive the conditions!
